

Harry keeps a diary. He writes in it every day. Here is his diary for a week in May.

Monday 15th. It rained all day so we did not have PE class. We stayed in our classroom and read our library books.

Tuesday 16th. I missed the bus and was late for school. It wasn't my fault (过错). The bus was early.

Wednesday 17th. I had an English exam today. I got 96. It's my highest grade ever. I made only one mistake. I used the wrong tense (时态) in a sentence.

Thursday 18th. I went swimming with Ben. We had lessons with a swimming instructor. He taught me how to dive.

Friday 19th. I was sick all day. I caught a cold at the swimming pool. I stayed in bed and slept all day. I felt better in the evening. I'm glad it was Friday and not Saturday or Sunday.

Saturday 20th. I was much better today, but Mom made me stay at home. I watched television all day. It was boring.

Sunday 21st. I didn't do anything interesting today.

Diary

What is diary?

It's obvious that diary is the record of what happens every day. But it doesn't mean that you can only write down the things happened today. Write whatever your like, whatever you think, since it's your diary, it's up to you.

Do remember the content of the diary should be real. You can take any form you like, one or two lines, thousands of words or even a picture, but you should make sure that what you have written is true. This is the most important part of a diary.

What's the meaning of diary?

Diary is the record of one's daily life. Huge amounts of life material are not enough, to analysis (分析) what's behind them is more important. Diary is not a composition that you hand in to your teacher or the one you write on your exam paper, it is the refection of who you are. So keep the habit of writing diary cannot make your handwriting better, cannot improve your writing style, but can help you to think more, to have a period of time when you can be quiet and think.

Although it's commonly believed that keeping diary is not easy nowadays, it's also a belief that if you can keep doing this, you will be a better you!
